

Crown Medical Training

Equal Opportunities Policy

Office of the Chief Executive

Crown Medical Training offers opportunities to take part in Training Activities irrespective of race, sex, marital status, disability or religious belief.

Crown Medical Training Offers equal opportunities to all and will meet obligations under all relevant legislation and otherwise to provide equal opportunity, to all those involved in our training courses.

Crown Medical Training will always endeavour to promote the best interests of each Candidate, the best interests of Training and help all those involved in the activities to maximise their potential.

All promotion of Crown Medical Training's courses shall be conducted within the framework of this policy.

There shall be no preconception by Crown Medical Training of any participant's suitability for any Crown Medical Training related activity because of his or her sex, ethnic origin, religion or disability.

Crown Medical Training is an Equal Opportunities Employer.

Issued by Order of the Chief Executive December 12th 2008.

